

CITY OF PROSSER, WASHINGTON
SEEKING VOLUNTEER RESERVE OFFICERS

The City of Prosser is seeking volunteers interested in becoming Reserve Officers for the Prosser Police Department.

Reserve Officers assist the Department in meeting its objectives by supporting investigations, patrols, participating in regular trainings, and supporting community events.

Appointed Reserve Officers are provided enrollment into the Washington Board of Volunteer Firefighters disability and pension funds. Additionally, the City is developing a policy to compensate Reserve Officers for "Call Ins". If you are interested in becoming a Reserve Officer or have more questions about this opportunity, please contact Sergeant Ed Blackburn at (509) 786-1500.

Application forms can be obtained at www.cityofprosser.com, by stopping by City Hall at 601 7th Street, or by calling 509-786-2332.

The City of Prosser is an Equal Opportunity Employer and encourages applications from all persons without regard to race, creed, color, national origin, religion, gender, age, marital status, disability, sexual orientation or veteran status. The City of Prosser also provides reasonable accommodation to its employees and the public with disabilities, including disabled veterans.

Publish: May 13 and May 20