Discharge of a firearm into an occupied dwelling

Prosser, WA: At approximately 9:50 p.m., on June 2nd Prosser Police Department officers were dispatched to the 600 block of Ellen Avenue reference multiple shots being fired. Upon arrival, officers discovered a residence in the area had been struck multiple times by gunfire. There were no reported injuries. A dark colored sedan that was possibly involved was last seen westbound on Bennett Avenue.

Residents who live in the area are encouraged to check their doorbell or home surveillance camera recordings between the hours of 9:45 pm and 10:15 pm. The Prosser Police Department is looking for any footage that show a black or dark colored hatchback.

This is an active investigation. If you have any information regarding this case, please call the Prosser Police non-emergency number at (509) 628-0333 or email crimetips@ci.prosser.wa.us. The Prosser Police Department was assisted by the Benton County Sheriff's Office.
