Prosser Update of Officer Involved Shooting on August 5, 2019

Subsequent investigation has revealed that upon the first officer's arrival, the first officer was fired upon by an unknown individual, the officer then returned fire but it is unknown if the suspect was hit. Further investigation indicates that an uninvolved tenant of the apartment complex apparently received several gunshot wounds just as the officers' arrived on the scene. The investigation is ongoing with several subjects that have been identified as persons of interest.

The Officer's and uninvolved tenant's injuries were not considered life threatening.

The officer involved is identified as Antonio Bustamante, 24yoa, who has been with the Prosser Police Department for a little over a year.
